Convict Confesses,

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 23 .- A special from Stillwater says:

J. C. Mcllryde, a convict at the prison, serving a sentence of three years for an assault, has made a remarkable confession showing him to be one of the most high-handed murderers in the country. His confession was made to Warden Wolfer, in a letter in which he related the murder of two officers. Joseph Grant and John McNutt, at Geneva, Ill., on Aug. 9, 1886; the murder of Julia Buckmire at Geneva; a postoffice robbery and the murder of the marshal of Ossawattomie, Kan.; the burglary of a hardware store and the shooting of a policeman at Guide Rock, Neb., and many burglaries and highway robber

Speaking of the circumstances of the murder of Grant and McNutt at Geneva, he says: "Two pain and myself were in the act of committing a burgof Aug. 29, 1886. After receiving the letter and calling McBryde into his office for a more cal pliest story of his crimes, Warden Wolfer, communicated with the au-therities at Geneva and shewhere. He learned that the crimes were commit ted, but has received no additional information.

Mcliryde is now 23 years old and cays he has followed the life of a robher and morderer since he was 18 years the south old. While relating the story of his crimes he gave all the details in a matter of fact manner and evidently felt relieved. He claims to have conferred became his conscience bothered him, and says he is anxious to be punished for his many crimes.

The Attack on Glenco.

London, Oct. 23 .- A correspondent in Glencoe camp, telegraphing on Oct. 20, and describing the fighting that followed the following engagement in the Boer attack upon the British position that day, says:

"It was after the battle was renewed, following the full that ensued upon the sharp cannonading of the Brit-Boers on Smith's hill that our casualties began.

"The Indian hospital corps of coolles under Maj. Donevan of the eighteenth hussars ran out, keeping in the rear of the advancing infantry and artillery that had galloped from the second position through the town amid the cheers of the citizens.

"At this point the Boers became ermen were wounded by the Filipinos in ratic. Our artillery was fighting on the hill where the Boers were stationton's expedition in the Rio Chiquita, ed in great numbers but the return of the fire did little damage. The enemy kept up an incessant shooting, but our shrappel began to tell its tale, with Gen. Otis has replied to the three the result that the Boer visibly slackened. Their artillery had been silenced by the splendid service of ours

"Meanwhile the squadron of the eighteenth hussars and a mounted company of the Dublin fusileers were creeping around on the enemy's left fiank, while another squadron of the hussars and a mounted company of the FAME AND EXCELLENCE ARE King's royal rifles deployed to the right flank, at the corn field.

"The artillery continued to play on Smith's hill with a range of nearly 3000 yards. Under Its cover the Dubun funileers and the Kink's royal rifles pressed forward. It was in the execution of this maneuver that the casualties to our infantry occurred, several men being killed or wounded.

"The firing now ceased off on our side, and only a solitary shot was returned now and then. Gen. Symons, with his staff in front of the guns, taking cover in the rear of the plantation, near the base of the hill. All this time our infantry in extended formation had gradually pressed forward, watching the Boers from the rear of the artillery lary at Geneva early in the morning and massing on the extreme left of the

"It was gallane work on both sides and scores of men fell within a distance of a couple of hundred yards, but the situation soon became too hot for the Boers, who broke and fled for when the officers came along with my their horses, which they had left at the foot of the hills on the northeast.

There they were received with a fulade from the hussars, who had captured or stampeded all the horses.

QUALITY AND NEWS.

DETERMINING FACTORS IN SUCCESSFUL DEVELOP-MENT.

One of the Important Functions of High-Class Newspapers.

In presenting interesting phases of scientific and economic problems, high-class newspapers frequently give information of as great value in their advertising columns as in those devoted to the publication of the prinalpul events of the day; and when the fame of a product is extended beyand its natural limits into foreign ands, and a large demand created throughout Great Britain and her colonles and the principal scaports and cities of Europe, Asia and Africa, It becomes a pleasant duty to note the fact and to tell of the points of excellence on which so great a success is based. We refer to the now worldfamed laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, the product of the California Fig. Syrup Company. The merits of this well-known excellent inxative were first made known to the world through the medical journals and newspapers of the United States; and is one of the distinct achievements of the press, It is now well known that Syrup of Figs is an ethical proprietory remedy, approved by the most eminent physicians everywhere, because It is simple and also whally free from any unpleasant after-effects. It is frequently referred to as the remedy of the healthy, because it is used by people who enjoy good health and who live well and feet well and are well informed on all subjects generally, including laxatives, In order to get its beneficial effects, it is necessary to get the genuine Syrup of Figs, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only,
